Women's Covert Coats

The latest and best ideas of fashionable metropolitan tailors are embodied in these new Covert Coats of ours. They're 45 inches long, made of fine English Covert Cloth, perfect fitting, correctly tailored and graceful. One model is tight fitting, has velvet collar, stitched strappings front and back with box plaited back below waist line.

Another is a loose belted model with patch pockets, collarless, box plaited back and front-both are lined to waist with Skinners guaranteed Satin-$17.50.

Seeing is believing-call and look at them to-day

THE STORY TELLER.

explorations. After looking through sev- blood," hardly looked at it at all," cursory glance!"

collectensty. "Is my but on straight?" comportant reply.

Heman studied the horse carefully, and Well, father," said his son, "I don't ment, think you ought to complain of him, even if he is old and feeble, it is a good deal WHAT HAS HAPPENED IN KANSAS. Batchelder had been admitted to the trib. Now the commission has to probe the matter. It is certainly a puzzler. setter animal than our Saviour rode into Jerusalem nineteer hurdred years ago."

"I think it's the same enjoyat." A OUESTION OF "STRETCHIN" thowing an applicant over the flat. She reproach.

walked back into the dining room and Do you do your own stretean'?" she

"Do we do our own what?" asked the puzzled mistress

"Stretchin." repeated the new girl. "I don't understand.

"Stretchin," repeated the girl again, "Do you not the stuff on the table at meal times and stretch for it or do have to shuffle it around?"

PROLONGING THE PRIME OF LIFE.

Professor Metennikoff, chief of research at the Lasteur Institute of Paris and one of the most eminent biologists of the day has reached the astonishing conclusion that the span of luman life may be large-ber what Standard Oil did to Kansas. In increased.

the selectist's belief.

Professor Metcheikoff's latest investigations have shown that old age as we know it is practically a disease, just as tangible and conquerable as any other of the Standard Oil's smothering of the homan ill, and one against which the body should be able to arm itself with ice raises against bubonic plague or diphtherin.

The discovery of the pathological nature

Bright Red Paint for

Red School House Paint is nade of English Red Oxideantee doesn't nearly cover years thrown in.

Price is right, too Color Card free,

Hagar Bros., HARDWARE and PAINT

Burlington, Vt.,

of old age is the outcome of Metchnikoff's discovery, some years ago, of the function of the Phagocytes (white corpscies of the blood) whose activity in attacking pin's. Following upon this comes the resig-She was having her annual attack-a and devouring the hostile microbes that particularly severe one-of the house enter the system is the measure of our bunting monia, and her husband was a immunity from disease. In observing rather unwilling companion of this day's these imcroscopic "watch-dogs of the state of affairs has existed in the prison the astonishing discovery was eral houses, until Mr. Househunter was made that certain diseases, notably the thereaghly weary of the task and post- "atrophies," not only were not combated tively hated the sight of a "For Sale" by the phagocytes, but were actually or "To Let" notice, Mrs. H. insisted upon counsed by them. It was seen that certain entering still another which struck her physical conditions cause a perversion of foncy. They travelled from room to the activities of the macrophages (a varoom, upstairs and down, and finally ar- riety of phagosyte) which then turn their rived again at the front deer. Mr. H. had attacks upon the body itself and devour not shown proper interest, at least from its cells as voraciously as under normal of view, and she gently conditions they destroy foreign microbes tock him to task therefor.

I don't believe you'll remember a to percentize the analogy between these From this discovery it was but a step thing about this house," she said; "you've phonomena and the state called "old age" "Yes, I have," he replied, in a desperate atrophy. yet denant tone; "at least, I've given it | So far, the most positive results obtain ed have been reached along lines of preobside the system also works and shope the forment of the forment obside the system also works and shope the forment obside the system also works and shope the forment obside the system also works and shope the filter the system also works. Then the key business is a puzzle. The of the Eukarian mountaineers, who are material to the longest lived people of the continent:

"Yes, I tell you it couldn't be on the longest lived people of the continent:

With this correlation of their theory.

Then the key business is a puzzle. The present moment there is a sensational amusements and the varied interests case in England, where a man has served of the town are made accessible to the specific properties of seven years point servitude. With this corroboration of their theory, transpiter.

With this corroboration of their theory, then, Harry, dear, I'm awfully sorry, Professor Metchnikes and his co-workers of the keller milk, and his co-workers o iors experiments of the laboratory work abserved that he seemed very aged and ers make an absorbing story and one that has for the lay mind continual astonish-

Miss Ida M. Tarbell in the September "I don't know, John," replied his father; McCURE'S smashes the last refuge of these apologists of John D. Rockefeller and his associates who, when the taint d money discussion was rife, cried that if After being without a girl for a week, Standard Oil had been an offender once the mistress of a Harlem apartment was it had now reformed and put itself above

She had even gone so far as detail, that the Standard Oil company is curred when Superintendent Oakes was the country. The North Atlantic States to extend the hour of the girl's return on to-day, as always, 'a conspiracy in re- sick in bed and only goes to show that the had a well-developed industry in "garthose nights and to agree to her using straint of trade,' he should go to Kansas. Harpins ought to have been discharged den products' before 1990, which acthe sewing nearline after her work was The 'oil war' in that State, which in several years before. It is unfortunate counts for its relatively low increase, done.

The 'oil war' in that State, which in several years before. It is unfortunate counts for its relatively low increase, done. The new girl seemed pleased and the country during the earlier months of the it will prove to be, temperarily at least, a the population increased only a trific over mistress was beginning to hope. They present year, was the direct result of a blot on the State's escutcheon, but after to per cent., is amazing. the girl had actually removed one hatpin the Standard had been playing in their shall expect to see efficient and effective thought tomatoes poisonous, and our territory a game 30 years old, playing it management. And there won't be any great-grandmothers, who grew them as deftly that, keen as they pride them- either. selves on being they had not realized its meaning until they bean to feel the pres-

The story of the Standard's attempt to pobble the Kansas oil field is the history of its carlier piratical aggressions repeating itself, but with a different ending. In Kances it encountered a new brand of ly irresponsible, and should not be hange public spirit, and went into the contest ed?" with this enlightened and electric commonwealth, handicapped by its past sins;

In the September McClure's, A. E. Mes how it came into the State after fortunes Farlane describes in a paper who h is the had been sunk in locating the oil, and by the operation of its old well-tried jugand investigations which give warrant for gobble the fruits of the pioneers' sowing. Miss Tarbell shows in the clearest and most informing wav just how the railroads operated as the secret allies of the Standard. The whole railroad situa- on her guilty body. tion appears in minature in this story Kansas oil industry. What happened there is going on all over the United weapons as effective as those which states, but the Kansans are the only Americans who have put the State above 'special privilege.' "You may be investing $15,000,000 for taking care of our oil," said the people. "You may do the work more promptly and perfectly than any other concern ever could, but justice is more important than millions, and every man shall have a chance in Kansas, We are going to stop your game. You must play fair if you stay in Konsas." This is not the tone that States usually adout toward their business rulers. Kansas is the first to try it. What has been the consequence to Kansas of this deternamed attitude, Miss Tarbell reserves for the October number, in which she will tell "What Kansas Did to Standard Oil.

THINGS YOU MAY HAVE NOTICED It is very easy to run a swift race-

down hill. If you succeed in getting your head thove the crowd-expect to have it hit. It requires no great wisdom to know how things should be done-afterward. I can tell you how you ought to live-bet don't watch me.

There is one sin which all of us feel should not be tolerated. It is the one that has no temptation for us. If all of our doings were laid bare to the world there would be more hermits than there are now.

SWEET DREAMS.

From griefs that make us shives We turn to days more bright; There's fish in every river And bait to make 'em bite! -Atanta Constitution.

The Tangle at the State's Prison and Some of Its Phases.

(From the Montpeller Journal.)

It would take a Sherlock Holmes at the height of his career to figure out the tangle at the State's prison which is bemission now in session at Bellows Falls. It is a nasty mess at best and presents

A legislative committee is appointed to nvestigate the affairs at the institution the first place. It finds that supplies belonging to the State have been shipped to a summer home of the superintendent. that the superintendent's wife has been kept on the pay roll without performing any labor and a few other things of greater or less importance. The committec recommends the resignation of that it becomes known that some of the employes are Oakes's men and others Harnation of Superintendent Oakes. Now the investigation.

and that a prisoner serving a long sencell of the murderess from young Harpin, and, in league with Mary Rogers, who lock, visits her at his will. When the was written, according to her testimony.

One of the statements made by Mary Rogers in her story is that she learned MAN'S TROUBLES

Talking abouts hots. I heard a formy conversation in a hetel corridor. The material set tube, and this, it peaking min accompanying her, inquired backing her, inquired backing min accompanying her, inquired backing her, inquired backing min accompanying her, inquired backing then there is the control of the con Platchelder say in the cell of Mary Rogers on the day of the interview and in the Mitchell, in the World To-Day, for Sep-

THE STATE PRISON SCANDAL.

had been liberal in her promises of pravi-leges in the way of afternoons and says Miss Tarbell, "complete to the last gross laxity in prison management oc-per cent. sudden realization by the Kansas that the affairs are all straightened out we Could our great-granddaddies. under their very noses so quickly and Harpins to block the wheels of progress ornamental plants in window-pets, under

CONCLUSION DOES NOT FOLLOW.

The conclusion doesn't follow. The a tive degenerate who pursues her vicious but for a while, until public sentiment was unawed by death of judgment, is was aroused, Standard Oil had everything its own way.

Misr Tarbell tells in the September numfrenzy. But we cannot disassociate the idea of responsibility. We dare not. The same calm, diabolical, shameless intent that murdered Marcus Rogers appeared in Professor Metchnoloff, the discoveries remain, the railroad rate, proceeded to the debauching of the trusty prisoner have sympathized with this vile criminal, unknowing her true character, will now arise and demand the penalty of the law

The Waterbury Record thinks that Vermont is ready to get into the Fairbanks band wagon, but we'll wager a good ripe red Astrakhan that the Vermont delegation will be instructed to vote for genial mental and physical heavyweight. Secretary Taft.

JUST WHAT VERMONT WILL DO.

(From the Rutland Herald.) "When we start again," remarks a St. Albans Messenger correspondent. turn over a new leaf. Why not try a business man (for governor) who is a Vermonter and who has the progress and in-

Bankers and Brokers

Members N. Y. Cons. Stock Exchange Our Market letter for this week, containing facts regarding the situation. Pennsylvania, Canadian Pacific and Col. Fuel, mailed free upon application.

19 Congress St.

terest of Vermont at heart, who is a suc-cessful man and who knows how to help us all towards success. Why sit here and wonder why our sister State of New Hampshire gets $10,000,000 out of the socalled 'summer boarder' business and we with greater advantages and only onehalf the distance to the reat centre of Why, oh why. And why don't we wake

PUSHING ONE'S OWN TOWN. (From the Island Pond Herald.)

We are pleased to notice the increase of local pride and enterprise in many of the towns and cities of our State. This apply the eye to an aperture in the teleis encouraging and always justinable, phone box, and see the young woman is even to an extravagant extent. We of miniature speaking 5,000 feet away. Mr Island Pond at this present time are per- Fowler is preparing now to show a train haps not so fortunate as some towns in in motion in his invention. He has no this regard, but if the shirt factory does doubt of its commercial practicability close down as is now feared, the Herald and declares that within a few years i has sufficient faith in the public spirit and will be in operation throughout the coun enterprise of our citizens and Business Men's association, that this building will others it will be a curse. Who has not not long stand closed. In all other enter- telephoned when he wanted to avoid a prises of the town, such as the railroad, the mills, the canning factory and the husbands "detained at the office" say to work shops, business is humming. The a machine that shows to suspicious wive man who has faith in his town, who be- the chips that pass in the night? Mr. lieves it has something of good before it. Fowler may not be a public benefactor will not stand on the corner of the streets after all.-"With the Procession," Every and denounce its institutions, belittle its body's Magazine. enterprises, deery its public spirited and leading citizens, and finding fault generally THE FARMER AND THE TROLLEY. with what is going on, as a certain few have done recently, declaring Island Pond of the Trolley" in Public Opinion, Aughad seen its best days. This latter we in- use 19, Ernest J. Hutson describes the

IDENTIFYING CRIMINALS BY FIN-GER PRINTS.

The system of identifying criminals by finger prints becomes a most important tence gains possession of a key to the aid to detective work. One sensational robbery of jewelry from a London store unlocks the inner door by removing the inals simply by reason of the fact that one of the house-breakers had touched matron learns of the visits of this man with his hand a dusty skylight. In anto the cell, she goes to Mary Rogers, other instance, the freshly painted winyoung Harpin has by this time left the dow sill; the piece of timber was sawed to interfere, Mary Rogers writes the the result that culprit, a known criminal, can scarcely be over-estimated.

it was the intention of Harpin by pro-curing the key for the prisoner and allow-which the marks left by the blood-stained frequent rips to larger cities at a which the marks left by the blood-stained frequent rips to larger cities at a But the system also works just as to markets and shops improve the pressing her meaning.

Then the key business is a puzzle. The cent and wrongfully accused. At this forts of the home. The social life, the

FIFTY YEARS OF AGRICUTURAL PROGRESS IN AMERICA.

The farm gardens, "market gardens," and "truck gardens" of to-day are the producers of a multitude of "miscellaneous vegetables" almost unknown 50 years ago. In the census of 1890 the large in-The scandalous revelations at Windsor crease in garden products was recognized. will result in a complete vindication of and a systematic count of their bulk Superintendent Oakes and react upon and value was made. It is possible, there-Warden Harpin, who for years has been fore, to make a ten-year comparison of the attractive name of "love apples come back and realize that over thirty ullion bushels of the pretty poisonous vegetables are eaten as a common and healthful food, they would surely realize that time works wenderful changes. Another interesting statement is that the lettuce crop of the South has so increased that in the spring of this year North Carolina sent 20 car-loads of that veget able North in a single day.

Thirty-five years ago celery was a ratity even in het-i tables, and wa used by few families even of wealth. Today it is a common edible, occupying thousands of acres in Michigan, Ohio, and New York. One firm has celery farms in Michigan, Florida, and California, and because of the variety of seasons it is Ah, dearest, dearest, not alone engaged in shipping celery by the carload the whole year round. Twenty-two The fair, bright ribbon of the hoursmillion bunches of radishes and twelve A mountain brook bestead through flowmillion bunches of asparagus are the figures for the crops of these vegetables. Runs, a dear line, from me to you, -F. W. Hewes, in Harper's Weekly.

SIX GOVERNORS OF SOUTHERN A silver string to pearls of sun, STATES TO VISIT VERMONT.

By invitation of the managers of the Across the high-hung summer sky, Caledonia fair at St. Johnsbury, and at 'Till in a radiant flame they burn, the request of the Southern Pacific rail. To mark the hour of your return. road, the governors of six southern states are to come north to tell the people something regarding the agriultural, mineral and other products of their states. Governor Brown of Florida called attention the other day to the will tell of the success reached there in number of plants which the Japanese raising oranges. Governor Blanchard of have taught us to cultivate. cane industries of his State. Governor that Japan is a wonderful country for Vardaman of Mississippi will give some gardening skill. We get new ideas from idea of the cotton industry there, as will there all the time-more than you would Governor Jefferson Davis of Arkansas, suppose. There's 'Udo,' the apanese win-Governor Glenn of North Carolina will ter salad, for instance. It has been known tell of its tar, pitch and turpentine in- in this country for some time as an orna Dawson of West Virginia will talk about ing it. The young, tender shoots, blanch. the wheat, corn. etc., raised in his State, ed like celery, are the edible part. They as well as about the coal mines, etc. are crisp, and have a flavor slightly re-The governors of all of the New England sembling pine. Then there is 'wasabi, States have been included in the invi- the Japanese horseradish, which is better tation to visit the Vermont fair, where than ours. It is pale green and has the Southern Pacific is to give an object brisk, snappy flavor. These two plants lesson in the shape of an exhibit of the are rather new; there are lots of other cultivation of cotton, rice, peanuts, pine- better known which came originally from apples, etc.

Never before has such a party of renresentative Southerners visited one of our New England States, J. T. Patrick, general industrial agent for the South- ing Japanese iris, in innumerable shade ern Pacific, is now in New England arranging the trip of the governors.

ENCOURAGING THE BARBER. Hicks-Penniman shaves

Hicks-How's that? Wicks-Ho'll give himself a clean shave all the plants of Japanese origin from SEEING BY TELEPHONE. New Invention, the Telephotograph Makes Faces Visible by Wire, "How well you're looking this morning!" says the facetious man in telephonic greeting to his friend a hundred miles population, get possibly a half million, away, Mr. J. B. Fowler of Portland, Oregon has taken the nub out of this joke by inventing an apparatus by which image displayed before a lens at one end of a telephone wire are projected upon a screen at the other end, Mr. Fowler invites hi place the telephone transmitter to the ear try. For some it may be a boon. For face-to-face interview? What will frisky

In his second aricle on the "Coming effect of the interurban electric rail way on the rural districts.

If a farmer lives on an electric railway, the car may stop at his door, he has opportunity to keep in touch with the outside world, through newspapers that are delivered at his door each day, and in case of sickness or some other urgent necessity, aid can be secured in far less time than was the case before the introduction of trolley lines into the rural districts.

electric railway to such of the rural State prison. With no one in the room out, and the snudges photographed, with population as come within its reach story of the proceedings at the matron's was at once run to earth. The identity of farmer and the members of his family request, she not seeing the work until it this accidental record with the official record pigeon-holed at Scotland Yard forced the time most convenient to them, and the culprit, George Smith by name, to far more quickly, cheaply, and com-make a full confession. Again, there fortably than by team. In many cases daughter of the late Secretary of State the publishing house of Harper Brothers, the day, another volume of poems, her third contribution to the literature of the present unguardedly.

NEW HELEN HAY POEMS OUT.

"The volume entitled "Songs and Son-"The day set by the government for the poetess returned from Europe with her he went on trying the piece he had -husband after an absence of several Bautimore American. months.

It is said that it was the intention of trying to undermine his superior. The the increase of from 150 per cent, to 40 Mrs. Whitney to complete her latest father. She had gone at the work in a secretive manner, and she would undoubtedly have made good her intention had not the death of Mr. Hay inter-The following are selections from the

My little boat is in a bay, It swings with gentle motion, And there I lie and watch all day The far-off, noisy ocean.

The ships go up, the ships go down, And never see me syping. They are the pride and fear of town-Sails wide and colors flying.

They fear no storm, no sorrow; With brave eyes to the sun, they all Set sail for some to-morrow. Sometimes I long to rouse and roam,

I face the day's white monotone.

There is no smallest deed I do Through which the ribbon does not run, So glad I watch the moments fly

JAPANESE FLOWERS. A florist, who is also a nurseryman

"Of course," he said "every one knows and its tobacco. Governor mental plant, but nobody thought of eat-Among the flowers the mos Japan. beautiful varieties of the chrysanthemum and wistaria, many of the morning glories and the wonderful giant flower of color, are all, together with many others, to be credited to the Mikado's land. Beautiful ferns come from there and as for trees and shrubs, the list is very long. The Japanese silver fir, the umbrella pine, the yew, the nutmeg edars, magnolias, japonicas, syringas

BURLINGTON SAVINGS BANK.

CHARLES P. SMITH, President,

HENRY GREENE, Vice-President.

F. W. WARD, Treasurer.

E. S. ISHAM, Asst. Trensurer.

Deposits to July 1, 1905...... $ 9,567,087.80

Surplus

601,578.84 Total Assets......$10,168,666.6

Deposits received and paid daily.

Deposits made during the first four days of the month will draw interest from the first of that month. Interest is credited on all deposits January 1st and July 1st. All taxes in this State are paid by the bank on deposits of $2,000 or less. Deposits can be made or withdrawn by mail or express. Money loaned on legal security at the lowest rates.

CHAS, P. SMITH, WILLARD CHAND, HENRY GREENE, J. L. BARSTOW. HENRY WELLS, F. W. WARD, ALBERT G. WHITTEMORE.

Burlington Frust Company

THE CONVENIENCE THAT SOME OF OUR PATRONS-ES-PECIALLY LADIES-FIND IN OUR SYSTEM OF COLLECTING AND CREDITING INCOME FROM ALL KINDS OF INVEST-MENTS WITH PREEDOM TO THEM FROM CARE AND IRK-SOME ATTENTION TO THE DETAILS OF SUCH AFFAIRS, LEADS US TO SUGGEST TO OTHERS, WHO HAVE NOT YET AVAILED THEMSELVES OF THE FACILITIES WE OFFER. THAT THEY CONSULT US.

WINOOSKI SAVINGS BANK.

From careful management has not met with loss from any loan made during the last twenty years.

Deposits made during first five days of month draw interest from first day of that month. Deposits made after fifth day of month draw interest from first day of next month.

Interest credited depositors January 1st and July 1st, compounding semiannually.

The bank pays all taxes in this State on deposits of two thousand dellars or less.

Surplus

which the marks left by the blood-standed in the fingers of the assassin have been photographed, and have sufficed to fasten the town and city life which is thus made crime on a suspect, against whom the evidence would otherwise have been quite breadth of view, culture and happiness of the assassin have been photographed, and have sufficed to fasten the town and city life which is thus made town. The contact with the cont

Your Money Grows when deposited in the Home Savings Bank.

City Hall Square, West. - Burlington, Vt.

OUR KALEIDOSCOPE.

FEARING THE OLD MAN. He meant to pop the question, But prudence bade him stop; For even if accepted,

THE CHEERFUL IDIOT.

-Philadelphia Press

He'd have to question pop.

"This," said the Cheerful Idiot, as he tugged at the trunk hinge served for John Hay, has just brought out, through steak at his boarding house, "must be "What day?" naked the Tired Citizen, nets," appeared on the day the young beef trial," gurgled the Idiot, happily, as ;

CONSIDERATE

Borem-She wasn't at home when I call-Miss Pepprey-Yes, she was telling me she considered it so thoughtful of you Horem-To leave my card? Miss Pepprey-No; to call when she wasn't at home.-Philadelphia Press,

IT WAS HE. Woman of the House (scrutinizing him sharply -I believe you are the same dirty, worthless vagabond that was here JOEL H. GATES, President. last work, begging for something to cat. F. E. BURGESS, Vice-President, Saymold Storey-Yes'm, I'm the feller, Th cold biled ham I got here waz the H. T. RUTTER, Cashier, hest I ever ett, an' I couldn't resist the H. S. WEED, Assitant Cashier, temptation to come again. That's why

-thanky, ma'am.-Chicago Tribune. WHERE IT CAME IN.

Mayme--Notice that couple we just passed? They're Mr. and Mrs. Pyrrh simmons. Their courtship was one of the most remantic affairs of the season. Maybelle-Why, she's as homely as a telegraph pole! Mayme-I knew it, and he's as poor as a church mouse. That's what made it so romantic.-Chicago Tribune. ONLY BROKEN SPEECH. If 'money talks'," the beggur said, "The most I've heard it utter is just the poor infrequent dime It manages to stutter."

-Philadelphia Press. THE THREE FIDDLES.

"And what did you see at the concert? asked the father. "I saw a man play a little fiddle and another one play a big fiddle," said the

"And don't you remember the 'cells player, too, Willis?" suggested the mother, who accompanied him. "Oh, yes; and then another man played a half-grown fiddle."-Yonkers States-

DECOLLETE.

"Did you see Mrs. Locutte at the hon last night?" asked Mrs. Gaddie. "Yes," replied her husband. "This morning's paper says she was dressed entirely in black. Is that so?" "Well-er-no. I wouldnt say that she was dressed entirely."-Exchange

A CABIN REVERIE.

Oh, de wind he came a-singin', Singin' sof' an' low; Singin' 'bout de sweetness What de daisies used to grow Singin' 'bout de sunshine. Singin' 'bout de nain. Singin' 'bout do winter day Dat gwineter come again.

Singin' 'bout de roses,

Singin' 'bout de frost; Singin' 'bout de happy home An' 'bout de ship dats lost. Honey, shet de cabin do' An' rest on daddy's knee An' lemme tell you what dat wind Is singin' 'bout to me. -Washington Star Terrible plagues, those itching, pes-tering diseases of the skin. Put an end to misery. Doan's Ointment cures. At

Howard National Bank

Burlington, Vt.

Capital _ $300,000

Surplus -$75,000

With trunks of apple trees bird-pecked and rough: The drowsy drone of bees throughout the

The fruit hangs overripe, each rotten speck A wound make by some bandit of the Anchored in sees of deepest, purest blue;

Their vapor shapes await the current's Their misty bulwarks changing to the the cheep Of rertless bird, half-sickened by the Which sits upon it perch almost asleep

And clear upstrings the cricket's anvi-- Edwin Carlile Litsey in the Pilgrin for POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Never judge a woman's thoughts by what she says. It is easier to avoid debt than it is to dodge a creditor. It's a man's outgo that plays havec with

Some men always do their best-including their best friends. As a woman grows older she becomes more sensible and less bossy.

the price tag attached thereto. If wishes were horses the majority of them would be among the also rans. A pretty girls is never so pleased as when some man reminds her of the Ice cream soda is a popular interior decoration at the present stage of the I'nkissed kisses are not the sweetest.

They are usually in the keeping of sour spinsters and cranky old tachelors. -Chicago News

University, has joined the official party of the British association of geographers going to South Africa the reddest and most lasting pigment to be had. It's dueable. In fact our 5 year guarthe life of Red School House Paint, but you surely can't kick on a couple of extra and PAROID ROOFING.

Barns.

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS SAY

official but he remains in office. prison occurs and among those who are weeded out are Warden Harpin and his son. Shortly after this, vague rumors begin to spread through the State relating to the condition of Mary Rogers and the ntimation of a scandal. Then appears the newspaper statements which show up the friction which existed between Superintendent Oakes and Warden Harpin and

It appears that a most disgraceful presence of Peck and Lovell that she was a reporter. That of course was after Miss Batchelder had been admitted to the cell.

(From the St. Johnsbury Caledonian.)

(From the Vergennes Enterprise.) The St. Albans Messenger asks: "Does anyone now want any further evidence that Mary Rogers is a degenerate, moral-

Hogers. And the women of Vermont who

VERMONT FOR FAIRBANKS.

(From the Lyndonville Journal.)

CURTIS & SEDERQUIST

52 Broadway New York

Wicks-Yes, and he's got on awful

our stock it would show a tremendous loss, I can tell you." and then walk right into a barber shop for a hair cut.-Philadelphia Ledger.

They are so strong, they are so tall.

My harbor life bewailing, But little boats must bide at home, To gayly speed the sailing. Another mood calls forth one of th numerous love poems in the volume:

the Japan rose and the sago palm are only a few that I happen to think of at he moment. Oh, if we had to cut out

MIDDAY IN SUMMER. Long gensses growing in the orchare

And every breath of wind a perfumed Black-bitten by the insects, in the trees breeze. Who strides with vicious buzz his aire High overhead a phantom fleet lies still,

Slow waves of warmth, and silence, save

September.

his income.

Never judge the value of a painting by

Frof. William M. Dayis, of Harvard